

The Last Student Standing

1. Each person will write down a maximum of three statements pertaining to the task given on a note card.
2. Everyone begins by standing and shares one of their statements to the group. When you share or if someone else shares a similar statement to one of yours, mark it out on your card.
3. Once all of your statements have been marked out, you will have a seat.
4. We will continue sharing statements, round-robin style, until only one student is standing.
